IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT — To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Married California Residents: A married applicant may apply for a separate account.

Ohio Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Married Wisconsin Residents: Wisconsin law provides that no provision of a marital property agreement, unilateral statement under Section 766.59, Wisconsin States, or a court decree under Section 766.70, Wisconsin States, affecting marital property adversely affects the interest of the creditor, unless the creditor receives a copy of the agreement, statement or decree prior to granting the credit or unless the creditor has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the creditor is incurred.
